February 2013	Details Prime Super's MySuper product offering. This notice has been superseded.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Prime Super will offer a MySuper product from 1 July 2013 (subject to approval from APRA). All members whose total account balance is invested in the Fund's current Default option must, by law, be automatically transferred to the new MySuper option. The MySuper option will have the same investment objectives, asset allocation and insurance benefits as the current Default option. It will, however, have a different fee structure, to comply with new legislation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This means that from 1 July 2013, members with account balances of more than $100,000 who are invested solely in the Default option will be better off remaining in that option. If you are invested solely in the Default option you can choose to remain in that option rather than automatically being transferred to MySuper by completing the attached Balanced investment option election form. The current Default option will be renamed the Balanced option and will be offered as a separate investment option from 1 October 2013.
